understand there will be no Steam Boat for Boston to-morrow (Wednesday) & therefore, I cannot meet with the Committee on Thursday. This letter will go with the land mail."

Now, in regard to the printing & publishing of the paper. We must make sharp bargains on these points, & be very careful of expense. We shall have to pay brother Wright more salary after he gets on to the spot, than you & I talked of. — No, we must get the publishing agents department filled as cheap as possible.
Cannot some glorious good abolitionist, who will do it well, be found who will do it well ~~cheap~~ & cheap out of love to the cause? Tell our brethren of the Committee to look carefully to this matter. — I trust they will close no bargain positively, till I come. God willing, I shall be there on Friday — at all events, I think you may rely upon seeing me Saturday morning.
I wish, therefore, that there might be a full meeting of the Committee on Saturday afternoon, & I will meet them. I shall get there on Friday, if there is a Boat, &

Bro Phelps,

It is now nearly 10 o'clock P.M. I must therefore be short. — Bro. Eliza Wright, will assume the editorial charge of our paper, after the Anniversary of the Am. A. S. Soc., & in the mean time, will contribute to the Columns. — This must be kept secret till I come — i.e., none but the Committee who have charge of the paper should know it & they should not communicate ^{it} to any living soul till I arrive in Boston. — Understand — Bro. Wright will move to Mass. after the Anniversary & till then, will remain here, & write about two columns per week. I shall secure other editorial aid, probably to help us along in addition to his two columns, till he arrives on the spot. — Especially must the fact, that he is to contribute to the Columns, while he remains here, be kept close. This is his earnest desire; & our brethren must abide by it.

I write this, because I
